1. Last fall the "Army Group Nord" had three full divisions, many "Kaderverbände" of the different services which were part of the "Territorialverwaltung" Schwerin, Leipzig and Dresden, and also other "Kaderverbände" located in the neighborhood of Berlin and belonging to the Ministry of Interior. Later the "Kaderverbände" and units of "Army Group Nord" were gathered into new divisions and today the army group has seven divisions, more or less complete. The divisions and regiments are now called "Bereitschaften" and "Kommandoes".
2. The Soviet Zone of Germany is now divided into three military areas of about the same size:
 - a. In northern area, Army Group Nord, (Maj. Gen. Rentsch in Pasewalk). To this army group belongs:
 - Infantry division Prenzlau
 - Mechanized division Eggesin
 - New infantry division Schwerin (Part of its in Pora).
 - b. In the middle area the mechanized division Potsdam was formed as the elite unit of the ministry. The mechanized regiments of the division are located in Oranienburg, Potsdam and Brandenburg-Hohenstücken, the armored units in Oranienburg and Burg, and the artillery and AA units in Glommen and Kirchmöser. Beside this there are in the middle area five regiments of engineers and other special troops. This mechanized division is not yet complete, but is well started. Commanding officer is Col. Pilz.
